

safe²tell™ Colorado

Fall Newsletter 2025

Updating Safe2Tell Recipients

Please visit Recipient Updates Form (opens in new window) to submit changes that need to be made.

On this form, you can select to add, remove, or replace contacts for your agency.

In the “Additional Information” section, include any notes, attachments, or questions

Student Ambassador Applications Open!

Safe2Tell Colorado is actively searching for students looking to be positive examples in their school and community and who embody empathy, compassion, and a desire to improve school safety.

STUDENT AMBASSADOR APPLICATION

NEW DATA TEMPLATE & TRAINING AVAILABLE

If you’re wondering how you can access your Safe2Tell data, or are interesting in creating custom data reports, fill out the “Data Request Form” towards the bottom of our data page here: Data Request Form (opens new window).

Train the Trainer

We have surveyed over 1,000 students across the state through the student ambassador program. Data shows that almost universally, students know the name Safe2Tell. However, there is a lot of confusion about how Safe2Tell works and when to use it.

Join the certified Safe2Tell Student Trainer team and help spread positive messaging about Safe2Tell.

See something harmful,

Do something helpful.

DATE: OCTOBER 21ST

8:30AM - 10:30AM

REGISTER FOR THE WEBINAR \(OPENS IN NEW WINDOW\)

- Gain access to curriculum and extension activities for teaching students about Safe2Tell
- Certificate upon completion

Don't Miss Important P3 Tips

We have received several notifications that our emails are being blocked. Please work with your IT teams to ensure that our email address of safe2tellco@p3tips.com is safelisted, so critical information is not missed. Thank you!